To the Afflicted
DR. GEORGE W. LEACH proposes a new system of cure in place of the internal doses which enfeeble the stomach, poison the blood, and endanger the life. He can be consulted at any time in Jacksonville, personally or by letter, giving name of the person, whether over or under 35 years of age, and the disease. He cures cancers, wens, ulcers, scrofula, piles, diseases of the lungs, spine, kidneys, and some others; charging but a very small amount in advance, afterwards if no cure no pay. He has a number of testimonials of cure, which he has recently treated 11 cases of cancer, seven of which are entirely well and the others getting well.

BROWN & PERKINS.
Pianos for the People!
420 Broome St., N. Y.

We would call the attention of the public and the trade to our elegant New Scale Pianos in the following styles:

STYLE A, 7 octave Front large round corners, plain case, either octagon or curved legs, straight bottom; bead moulding on plinth. $450

STYLE B, 7 octave, same as style A, with serpentine moulding on plinth, curved legs and lyre. $500

STYLE C, 7 octave, Front corners large round, serpentine bottom, mouldings same as on style D, curved lyre and desk, fancy carved legs. $550

STYLE D, 7 octave, Four large round corners, finished back, mouldings on rim and plinth, serpentine bottom, carved lyre and desk, elegant carved fruit legs. $600

The above styles are all finished in elegant Rosewood cases and have the full iron frame, French action, harp pedal, beveled top, ivory keys and key fronts, and exceed in overstrung bass, nearly all the 7 octave Pianos now manufactured. They are made of the best materials, and for finish, durability, purity and sweetness of tone, cannot be surpassed. We invite the attention of the public, of dealers and the profession, to a critical examination of the merits of our Pianos.

By avoiding the great expenses attendant upon costly factories and expensive warehouses in the city, we are enabled to offer these Pianos at prices which defy competition, and invite all to call and examine them before purchasing elsewhere. Parties ordering from a distance can rely upon receiving their Pianos promptly, and no confusion can arise as the styles are so distinctly designated by the letters A B C D.

The four styles described above, embody all the essential changes in exterior finish of cases, which are by many manufacturers run up to 15 and 20 patterns.

Music Department.
We would respectfully call the attention to Choir Leaders and Singing School Teachers to our establishment, where all kinds of Church Music, Glee and Anthem Books can be obtained on the most favorable terms.

Sabbath Meditations.

That we live in evil times cannot be doubted. Iniquity abounds. Crimes of prophan shape stalk abroad unabashed. The multitude seem to have forgotten God. The broad, downward road is crowded. Many from whom better things might have been expected, have gone away backwards! Truly, this is for a lamentation. And yet few regard it as they should!

It was in view of such state of things that the psalmist exclaimed: "Rivers of water run down mine eyes, because they—the multitude—keep not Thy law." It must, also have been from the depths of his heart that he spoke: for his address and earnest appeals were directed to the All-seeing—the heart-searching God.—Where? and how many are models of like character now?

Oh wild, gaily and thoughtless words! Oh vain, extravagant, pleasure-loving world! Over what charnel houses, amidst what Achanas are thy festivities and banquetings—not to say midnight orgies—held?

And the "Law," that law of the Lord which is "perfect," at once "holy and just and good," how is it trodden under foot? The holy Sabbath, how is it neglected and desecrated? God's holy and venerable name all heaven adores, how constantly and shamefully is it profaned and abused?

Intemperance is also, slaying its myriads in all the States! And how are its enticements leveling the children and youth of our land to irretrievable ruin? Surely it is of God's great mercy that we are unconsumed. Now is the time for deep humiliation and repentance; the time for rivers of water to run down the eyes of every christian, every patriot: the time for earnest and unceasing supplication; the time for God's ministers to cry aloud and spare no—yea, to weep between the porch and the altar! And the wicked—let him forsake his ways, and the unrighteous man his thoughts, and let him return unto the Lord, who will have mercy upon him, and to our God, who will abundantly pardon—And all "suffer," let them know that it is "according to the will of God," that He may do them good in their latter days; and let them commit the keeping of their souls unto Him, in well doing, as unto a faithful Creator. AERIAN.

A HISTORY OF THE WAR.—The National Publishing House, Richmond, Va., will soon publish a work by Hon. Alexander H. Stephens, entitled "A History of the Late War between the States—Tracing its Origin, Causes and Results." The announcement is a confidently expected, from the pen of the most philosophical statesman to America; a contribution to the history of the times far more valuable than anything that has yet appeared.

Gen. Grant on the Suffrage Veto.
A dispatch to the New York Times gives the following account of General Grant's position on the recent veto:

He was present at the Cabinet meeting by request, without previous knowledge of the subject that would come up for deliberation. In the discussion on the bill Gen. Grant took no part, and after a few words he had risen from his seat to depart, the President asked him if there would be any propriety in asking his views on the subject. Gen. Grant replied very briefly, that the objection which had been urged by one member of the Cabinet, that it was unconstitutional, because it disfranchised rebels with out trial, was in his estimation, the best part of the bill and exhibited the most wisdom. With reference to conferring the right of suffrage upon the colored people of the District, he remarked that he always thought it inconsistent on the part of Congress to enforce this right here while they refused to grant it to the same class in their own States. Either members of Congress should extend this privilege at home or wait until the people here asked for it.

A negro on trial before the Mayor of Lynchburg for striking another negro, gave as an excuse the fact that the negro he struck belonged to the "old issue" (free before the war) and therefore tried to impose on him.

PITTSBURG MANUFACTURES.—Pittsburg contains five hundred large manufacturing establishments. It has fifty glass factories and sixteen potteries, forty-six iron foundries, thirty-one rolling mills, thirty-three machinery establishments, and fifty-three oil refineries, sides miscellaneous works of almost every variety, the whole turning out an annual product worth $100,000,000.

Impeachment—Exciting Story
The New York Herald, of 1st says: No prearranged event in affairs is more certain to come than the impeachment and removal of President Johnson from office. This will be done because it is a necessity to the consummation of the revolution. Congress has no power when the suspension of its authority over the rebel States for two years comes is morally certain under Johnson.

It says the present Horace. The Senate, after will elect Fessenden as president, and Grant as Vice-President, and Fessenden as President, before May, will be convicted, and Grant will be chosen by a special election, his term.

The New York World, of 1st date says:

The prospects of the country, even during the darkest period of the war, seemed so gloomy as to induce From well informed Washington we received intelligence which confirm our opinion that the are strenuously bent on laying the President as being nothing a hideous civil war in which the neighbors. It will be no such that from which we have seen which the combatants were separated geographical lines. The Grant.
The New York Herald is on foot to have the by the State as rapidly as when ratified by three-fourths will be declared a part. This is to be insured by General Grant as the next.

"This is the program, and the simple statement of it will carry with it the general conviction of its success. It will remove at once all the stumbling blocks to a settlement with the South, in the shape of conflicting claims and schemes for the Presidency; it will consolidate the North upon the amendment and upon General Grant as its champion, and it will bring the Southern States to a graceful submission to a reorganization which will become part of the Constitution without forcing them to sign it."—Charleston Mercury.

CONTRAST.—Not long since the dignity of a Court of Justice was interrupted by a file of soldiers, who marched in, guns and clanking armor, a man who had brass buttons on. More recently a file of soldiers arrested four respectable young men in Rome, because they were engaged in the "burial" was represented, and a flag necessarily used. More recently, we see in the account of the interruption of the remains of General Johnson, by which they and the remains exposed, under circumstances of excitement.

be other side. Recently a man was appointed to confer with the authorities of the city, for the purchase of a suit of ground upon which to bury the federal dead. The desired contained about three business portion of the city, very valuable. The corporation to sell the lot of ground, and the Agent, that if he kept it, it would be tendered a generous donation. These cases furnish a fair criterion to judge of the relative magnanimity of the two races and also, which exhibits the desire for just and generous.

HONOR AND FIDELITY TO

And this refusal, be it remembered, is made in the face of threats, by a powerful and implacable enemy, of the infliction of calamities more dire than all that have preceded them, and promises of great rewards for willing obedience in self-degradation. The civilized world cannot say in future that the southern people are actuated by interest or fear. If aught on earth could heighten our admiration of southern character and honor, it would be this Their present enemies, full of hatred, malice and all uncharitableness, may never be penetrated by a single emotion of magnanimity towards them, but disinterested nations and impartial history will do them justice

Dentistry.—The reader will find in this paper the card of Dr. H. T. Spalding, Surgeon Dentist, who has settled in our place, and offers his services in all the branches of his profession. Dr. S. is a thoroughly qualified practical Dentist, with a successful experience of over twelve years. He comes highly recommended, and will no doubt be enabled to give entire satisfaction to all who may patronize him. He is in possession of the latest improvements, approved by the profession, and is there- by enabled to insert whole or partial sets of teeth upon a plan much cheaper than gold plate, more agreeable and less liable to break or get out of order.

Give him a call, and we venture that you will be well pleased with the neat- ness, durability and perfection of his work, and the reasonableness of his charges.

Livery and Sale Stable.

Messrs. R. H. WYNN & Co., as may be seen by reference to their advertisement, have taken the large and convenient Livery Stable, formerly kept by Mr. J. H. Sargeant, and will be prepared to hire Hacks, Buggies, and Saddle Horses; to feed horses and mules and have garden work done of various descriptions. They will also generally have on hand horses and mules for sale. This establishment will be a great convenience to the resident and transient public; and from the well known energy, promptitude, and accommoda- ting disposition of the proprietors, we anticipate for it a liberal and remuner- ative patronage.

It will be seen by reference to the notice of L. W. Cannon, County Treasurer, that claims for 1865, are now payable up to No. 406

THE MEMORY OF A MOTHER.—When temptations assail, and when you are almost persuaded to do wrong, how often a mother's word of warning will call to mind vows that are rarely broken! Yes, the memory of a mother has saved many a poor wretch from going astray. Tall grass may be growing over the hallowed spot where her earthly remains repose; the dying leaves of Autumn may be whirled over them, or the white mantle of Winter may cover them from sight; yet her spirit appears when he walks in the right path, and gently, softly mourn- fully, calls to him when wandering off into the ways of error.

UNANIMOUS DECISIONS.
In order to remove the lion from the path of radical progression, it is now proposed to fitter the Supreme Court of the United States by requiring all decisions rendered to be con- sidered in by all the Judges. This is a nice net in which to catch the small fish that are now worrying the great Congressional whale, but it will hardly hold water enough. Congress should set the example and cease to make laws without a unanimous vote, and certainly should not exclude any longer fifty representa- tives from its deliberation. If a unanimous court is ever obtained, the machine will have to be run by a new set, whose consciences are more pliable. The housewives run their can- dies in a mould all alike, but fortunately for the country there is some difference in the models upon which the present Judicial lights were moulded, and if any proposition is brought up remoulding the Court, that body itself will likely pronounce the scheme un- constitutional. —Montgomery Advertiser.

THE FRENCH DEBT.—Napoleon, since his accession to the French throne, has added $1,350,000,000 to the debt of France, which now amounts to $2,415,000,000, a sum almost as great as the total debt of the United States. Napoleon's wars have cost him about $500,000,000, and since 1851 the annual deficit of the French revenues has averaged $50,000,000

TO MAKE COWS GIVE MILK.—A writer who says his cow gives all the milk that is wanted in a family of eight persons, and from which was made two hundred and sixty pounds of butter during the year, gives the following as his mode of treatment—it is cheap, and worth at least a trial:

If you desire to get a large yield of rich milk, give your cows three times a day water slightly warm, slightly salted, in which bran has been stirred at the rate of one quart to two gallons of water. You will find, if you have not tried this daily practice, that your cow will give twenty-five per cent. more milk immedi- ately under the effect of it, and she will become so attached to the diet as to refuse to drink clear water unless very thirsty, but this mess she will drink almost at any time and ask for more. The amount of this drink necessary is an ordinary water pail full each time, morning noon and night. Your animal will then do her best at discounting the lac- teal. Four hundred pounds of butter are often obtained from good stock, and instances are mentioned where the yield is even at a higher figure.

FACTS WORTH REMEMBERING.—A corre- spondent gives the following facts worth remem- bering:
It is worth while for all farmers everywhere to remember that thorough culture is better than three mortgages on their farm.

That an offensive war against weeds is five times less expensive than a defensive one.
That good fences always pay better than law suits with neighbors.
That a horse who lays his ears back and looks lightning when any one approaches him is vicious. Don't buy him.
That scurrying the feed of fattening hogs is a waste of grain.
That fowls when over-fed won't lay eggs.
That hay is a great deal cheaper made in the summer than purchased in the winter.
That educating children is money lent at a hundred per cent.
That one evening spent at home in study is more profitable than ten in lounging about country taverns.

That cows should always be milked regu- larly, and clean.
That it is the duty of every man to take some good, reliable, entertaining newspaper, and pay for it promptly of course.

The Democrats of Kentucky are recom- mending a Convention about the 1st of May next. The New Hampshire States and Union says: "We notice that this action of our Kentucky friends is meeting with a heavy response from the Democratic press of the whole country. Let New Hampshire respond, and let us give the Radical traitors to understand that they must stop their infernal disunion schemes, or we fight them with the weapons to which freedom resort when all other means have failed."

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES!

From Mobile.
Mobile, Jan. 26.—Cotton sales 1,300 bales; receipts 225; market dull; mid- dling 30 1/2.

From Washington.

Washington, Jan. 26.—SENATE.
Doolittle presented a report on Indi- an affairs, the report was ordered to be printed.

A bill authorizing the Baltimore and Potomac railroad to bring a branch to Washington. Passed.

A bill abolishing peonage, and pro- viding that debts on which peonage is based be void, and that within twenty days after the passage of the act a com- missioner of the Freedmen's Bureau shall go to New Mexico and enforce it; referred to committee on military af- fairs.

The conference committee on pension agents reported a bill which passed. It removes all agents appointed since the first of July last.

The President called for Senator Wil- son's report of the capture of Mr. Davis.

The increase of pay for the army was introduced, pay to those not entitled to double rations increased 25 per cent.

The tariff bill was resumed and after executive session adjourned.

HOUSE.—The Secretary of Treasury was ordered to suspend sales of confis- cated whiskey, unless the price equals the tax.

A large number of private bills were considered, when Stevens' bill was taken up.

Ross made a powerful speech in oppo- sition to the bill.

The debate developed the fact that the Reconstruction Committee had had no session this time, and that the Re- publicans had not agreed upon a plan of reconstruction.

There was a sharp colloquy between Chandler and Ashley. The latter was goaded into the expression of the fol- lowing sentiment:

If there is a State of the American Union in which there is not a loyal man except black men, I would clothe the black man with franchise and every other right under the Government. [Ap- plause on floor and galleries and some hisses.]

Mr. Ashley continued denouncing the assumption of those who during the en- tire war were in secret alliance with rebels, coming here and joining hands with the apostate at the other end of the avenue.

Mr. Winfield denounced the above base and unfounded slander.

Mr. Hunter said: "So far as I am concerned it is a base lie."

The Speaker said Mr. Hunter's words were out of order.

Mr. Randall said it was nevertheless true.

The Speaker decided Mr. Randall's remark out of order.

A vote of censure on Mr. Hunter passed, 84 to 33, after which the House adjourned, with the understanding that the enabling acts to be discussed on Monday under the five minutes rule.

Interview of Governor Orr with the Leading Republicans—Proposed Arrangement for the Settlement of Differences.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—Governor Orr, of South Carolina, had an interview to day with a number of the leading Republican members of Congress; among whom were Speaker Colfax, Senators Wade and Wilson, and the Hon. Jno. Covode.

Governor Orr is hopeful that an arrangement will be made, by which all differences between the North and South will be reconsidered, upon the basis of Southern representation, impartial suffrage and universal amnesty.

The project is yet in embryo.

HERMES.

A CARD TO INVALIDS.

A Clergyman, while residing in South America as a missionary, discovered a safe and simple remedy for the cure of Nervous Weakness, Early Decay, Diseases of the Urinary and Seminal Organs, and the whole train of dis- orders brought on by baneful and vicious habits. Great numbers have been cured by this noble remedy. Prompted by a desire to ben- efit the afflicted and unfortunate, I will send the recipe for preparing and using this medi- cine, in a sealed envelope, to any one who needs it, Free of Charge.

Please enclose an envelope, addressed to yourself.

From Galveston.

Galveston, Jan. 25.—Great excite- ment in consequence Gen. Griffin's inter- ference with Gen. Johnson's ob- equies. Griffin demanded pledges which the Mayor refused, under which he would allow the remains to be taken to the Episcopal church for service. The body remained in the open air all day and was visited by thousands. Busi- ness was suspended and houses draped.

In a spiritual circle, recently a widow asked: "Is the spirit of my husband present?" and the answer came, "It is." She asked, "John, are you happy with- out me?" "Very Happy." "Where are you, John?" "In hell," replied the ghost of the lamented John, to the great dis- gust of his inquisitive relit.

Some exchange says sawdust pills would effectually cure many of the dis- eases with which mankind are afflicted, if every individual would make his own sawdust

One of our exchanges thinks Mexico would be better off if Napoleon and Seward were both in Paradise. To this another replies—Yes, but how would the citizens of Paradise like it?

A GIFT TO THE POOR.—A London policeman, having a claim for $750,000, applied to a lawyer to institute legal proceedings for its recovery. The lawyer took charge of the case, making it a condition that, in case of success, the claimant should give $125,000 to his poor relatives, and $125,000 to the London hospitals. The cause was gained, and the policeman has performed both conditions—considering the $500,000 left him an ample fortune to satisfy the wants of a man who for all his previous life had scarcely any fortune at all.

Obituary.

Mrs. L. M. SHARLEY, wife of M. Henry Sharley, was born January 29th, 1825; died in Jacksonville January 10th, 1867, in the 42nd year of her age. During a long series of years Mrs. Sharley was a member of the M. E. Church, and her daily walk testified the reality of her religion she professed. Around the family hearth-stone, in the social circle, among the loving children of her Sabbath School Class; in the class meeting and on the couch of disease and death, the christian graces of our departed sister shone with pecu- liar lustre, and her bright example sheds a guiding light over the "straight and narrow way," which her feet so faith- fully trod to its blissful consummation. While blessed with strength and vigor she was ever prompt in the exercise of the active duties of our holy religion, and when called upon to bear the afflic- tive rod of her chastening father, her gentle spirit bowed submissively to the heavy strokes, beautifully exemplifying, in its meek resignation, the all-suffi- ciency of Divine grace under the most grievous afflictions. During a period of more than eighteen months she lan- guished upon a bed of suffering, & while the eye of fond affection went to mark the severe anguish that writhed her dy- ing body, the hand of faith wiped away those falling tears as she pointed to the glorious triumph of the immortal spirit over disease and death. Thus, leaving behind her the sweet aroma of a well-spent life, her happy spirit bearing up- on its pure brow the gracious commenda- tion, "She hath done what she could," passed from the toils and suffer- ings of earth, and greeted by precious words of welcome from our Father, tri- umphantly entered the Eternal Mansion of Repose. A FRIEND

DISTRIBUTIONS.

We would call attention to the opin- ion of one of the leading papers of Can- ada on this subject:

Most of our readers have no doubt read one of the numerous advertisements of Gift Enterprises, Gift Concerns, &c., which ap- pear from time to time in the public press, offering most tempting bargains to those who will patronize them. In most cases these are genuine humbugs. But there are a few re- spectable firms who do business in this man- ner, and they do it as a means of increasing their wholesale business, and not to make money. From such firms, it is true, hand- some and valuable articles are procured for a very small sum, and what is more impor- tant, no one is ever cheated. Every one gets good value for his dollar; because, as we have stated, it is intended to act as an advertise- ment to increase their ordinary business.

We have seen numbers of prizes sent out in this way by SARGENT, WARREN & CON- RAY, of Nassau street, N. Y., and there is no doubt that some of the articles are worth eight or ten times the money paid for them, while we have not seen or heard of a single article which was not fully worth the dollar which it cost. But this is only one of the exceptions of this rule, for as a general thing the articles engaged in this business are nothing but clever swindlers.

GADSDEN HOTEL

J. T. BARRETT

Legislative Summary.

In the Senate Mr. Moren introduced an important bill to regulate judicial proceedings which is given in full in the proceedings. The Senate passed the bill to grant authority to the Probate Court to distribute real estate by lot or division, when such property has been received in compromise of doubtful debts. The subject of procuring statistics of Alabama soldiers: and of printing and distribution of the Revised Code, occupied considerable time in the Senate.

The most important business discussed in the House was the exemption bill reported from the Judiciary Committee. Mr. Bethea offered a substitute, when both were postponed and made the special order for 11 1/2 o'clock, this morning.

A resolution was offered by Mr. McKinstry, providing for a survey of the Cross river from Rome, Ga. Wetumpka, with the object of opening that to steamboat navigation. The resolution, with an amendment limiting the expense, was referred.

A bill to locate the State Capitol permanently at Mobile, was offered by Mr. Williams, of Jackson, and referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Capt. Richardson, the gallant young representative from Limestone, presented three petitions, including one from 150 ladies of Athens, in relation to the repeal of a law prohibiting the sale of spirituous liquors within certain limits in that county, which he desired to be read. He then offered a bill to repeal the Act in question.—Advertiser, 22nd.

Legislative Summary.

Bills were introduced in the Senate yesterday to encourage sheep, hog and cow raising in this State; to prevent papering; to authorize securities of certain officers to use their principals as witnesses in certain cases, &c.

The question of printing the Code of Alabama, was discussed and the Joint Committee were instructed to report at an early day. A number of unimportant bills were passed.

In the House, a resolution was introduced to adjourn sin. die on the 31st of January, which was postponed until Monday next. Bills were introduced to appropriate ten thousand dollars to defray the expense of testing the constitutionality of the Federal three cents tax on cotton; for the representation of the mineral resources of Alabama in the Paris Exposition; and to provide for explaining to the colored population the criminal laws of the State.

Advertiser, 25th.

In the Senate yesterday, several new bills of considerable importance were introduced and referred—to aid in educating the blind in Alabama: to create a new county from Blount, Jefferson, Walker and St. Clair; to extend the time of reporting estate insolvent in certain cases, &c. Most of the time was consumed in receiving and considering reports from Committees.

The House considered and passed a number of Senate bills of various degrees of importance most of them of a local character.

The Select Committee, appointed to investigate the alleged violation of their charters by railroad companies, made a report of considerable length, and reported a bill to provide a mode for vacating railroad charters. It was made the special order for Monday next.

Advertiser, 25th.

In the Senate several bills having only local application, were introduced and referred.

A bill introduced by Mr. Garrett to increase the guards that accompany convicts from the various counties to the Penitentiary, was passed. Another bill introduced by Mr. Barnes for the relief of defendants in judgments and decrees rendered during the war was also passed.

An animated debate consumed much of the morning hour, on the favorable report of Mr. Powell, of Macon, on the bill to encourage the raising of sheep, hogs and cows. A more extended notice will be found in the regular report of proceedings.

In the House Mr. McKinstry offered a resolution that the House have afternoon sessions until the business is disposed of. The resolution, under the rules, lies over one day.

Mr. Dexter introduced a bill providing for a general system of instruction throughout the State, which was made the special order for Tuesday next.

A bill to authorize the formation of corporations for manufacturing purposes, was passed by a vote of 57 to 28. The bill was so amended as to expressly forbid the granting of any lottery privileges. At the hour of 12 the two Houses met in the Hall of the House to listen to an address from Senator Parsons.

Advertiser, 26th.

In the Senate yesterday, bills were introduced to authorize towns, cities and counties to subscribe to railroads in this State—a bill was reported and passed, to extend the time of reporting estates insolvent, made so by the emancipation of slaves—to repeal a bill to allow creditors without a lien to file debts—to form a new county to be called "King" &c. A bill was also passed fixing the salary of the Supreme Court Reporter at $1,800, and making reports the property of the State. A resolution by Mr. Garrett was adopted, inquiring for what length of time officers elect in the new counties held their offices.

In the House, a resolution was adopted, authorizing Justices to hold monthly terms for adjudication of debts contracted since the war, if they are not authorized to do so. Important resolutions by Messrs. Potter and McAlexander, were offered and adopted to encourage immigration and the introduction of capital into the State. Bills were introduced to authorize Attorneys to administer oaths—to relieve Receivers of public moneys—to guard against fire on steamboats and railroads—to provide the proper proof where stamps have been placed on Process, Deeds, or Conveyances—to authorize Probate Judges to associate two Justices of the Peace in trials of misdemeanors before the County Court.

An important bill was introduced by Mr. Worthy, of Pike, to protect freedmen under contracts for labor. The bill substantially provides that in cases of written contracts with freedmen, where they are not interchangeably delivered, that either party shall be furnished with a copy on demand; and in case of refusal or non-compliance, either party in case of a suit at law shall be entitled to proceed as in case of verbal agreements, and to testify as in other cases. The employer, or holder of the copy of the contract, will then be estopped from introducing it as evidence in the suit.

The House resolved to hold two sessions daily until the business is disposed of. Advertiser, 27th.

MOBILE, Jan. 25.—There was a destructive fire at Shubuta, Miss., which broke out at half past 2 o'clock. Eighteen business houses were consumed, including three warehouses. Champion & Co. alone lost forty-five or fifty thousand dollars.

Jacksonville Male Academy.

The undersigned take pleasure in announcing to the public that they have secured the services of Professor W. J. BORDEN, as Principal in the Jacksonville Male Academy, for the present year.

The exercises of said Academy will commence as soon as the present session of the Legislature adjourns.

Professor Borden's high reputation for scholarship, excellent discipline, & easy practical manner of imparting instruction, is so well known, and so well deserving, as to need no commendation from us. We solicit for him liberal patronage. Boarding for pupils from the country can be had on reasonable terms, in good families.

In addition to the healthy and beautiful location of the Town, pupils will have the benefit of religious services, every Sabbath, at one or more of the churches—also the exertions of the Trustees to make it the interest of pupils to attend this Academy.

NOTICE.

JOHN H. WISDOM & R. B. KYLE, having control of the Gadsden Ferry for the years 1867 and 1868, propose to permit the citizens of Baine county to cross the Ferry at Gadsden, for the years named, at half the regular rates of toll, if Gadsden is made the county site, where parties will come forward and buy tickets. To explain, we will sell two dollars worth of tickets, at regular rates for one dollar. Persons hauling wood and produce to Gadsden will only be charged half ferriage.

COMMERCIAL COLLEGE.

This exercises of this new, useful, and important institution will commence on the first Monday in March, 1867, provided as many as ten students are obtained in time to make the necessary preparation, though twenty or more are desired to complete the School.

The course of instruction will embrace Penmanship—Book-keeping, double and single entry—a perfect course in Arithmetic, including all commercial Calculations—Lectures on Commercial Law, &c.

Young men and youths desiring to attend the first and opening session, will please advise me very soon in person, or if residing at a distance, by letter. They will have ample time to make all necessary arrangements to come. Any who may desire to board themselves could doubtless get a room or rooms here very low.

Those who enter at the commencement of the session, will stand a fair chance to graduate at its close, and if they do, I am satisfied they will afterwards feel that they would not have missed it for five hundred dollars or more; for there is no doubt that it would enable them to command a salary of from $1,000 to $1,500 the first year. One object is to fit them for the richest, easiest and best paying situations in the catalogue of business.

Knowing as I do, the importance and good results of such an institution, I argue the question, and urge it myself, not alone for a school, or for the good which will result to those who attend the first session, but to found and establish the Institution; so that it may be permanent, and continually increase in popularity and usefulness to those attending in after years. Don't let the little sum of fifty dollars deter you, as you can make them mount in one month or less, after the session closes, if you seek a situation.

length of the Alabama River. When we consider the boundless resources of the country which this improvement would open to the trade of the world, it seems marvelous that there should be so much indifference upon the subject.

Closely connected with this subject is that of opening of the harbor of Mobile. The New Orleans, Mobile and Chattanooga Railroad is about to be built; the opening of the Chosa to navigation is being agitated and must be effected.

and, in connection with these, it is of vital importance that the obstructions to commerce arising from lack of depth of our harbor should be removed. Whether this is to be done by deepening the channel, by the removal of shoals, or by the construction of a new harbor, is a matter for the consideration of the Board of Harbor Commissioners.

We are reminded by the Gadsden Times, of yesterday, that we copied into our paper of 26th ult., a well written article from that paper, descriptive of Black Creek Falls. As this omission to give proper credit, was inadvertent and wholly unintentional, and the first of the kind for 30 years, we hope to be pardoned.

The same article was copied by the Montgomery Advertiser, doubtless from our paper. That paper will likewise, we doubt not, when made acquainted with the facts, make the amende honorable.

We invite special attention to the card of Col. W. B. MARTIN, who has re-opened his Law Office, at No. 8, Office Row. Of Col. Martin's ability and long experience as a successful practitioner, we need not speak, as he is perhaps as well known as any man in the State.

THE NEXT GOVERNOR.—We are pleased to see the name of our talented and worthy Senator, GEN. WM. H. FOSBER, brought prominently forward for the office of Governor, and that too, from sections of the State where local prejudices could have no influence on the recommendation. Few if any better selection of an executive officer could be made in the State; and this we say, not because he is a citizen of our County, but because we sincerely believe it.

PAINLESS EXTRACTION OF TEETH.—Science has done much to alleviate pain in surgical operations, but in few things has been more successful than in "Richardson's Næcrotic Pain Producer," by the application of which the nerves of teeth are rendered perfectly benumbed and insensible, so as to produce no pain in extracting, and other painful tumors, pertaining to minor surgery, may be treated with success.

We witnessed the extraction of a large jaw tooth on yesterday morning, by Dr. J. D. Arnold, Surgeon Dentist, which this invention was applied, which was said by the person whose tooth was drawn, to produce no pain in the extraction of the tooth, nor any sensation, except that of the force required to remove it. It made us wish that the method had been brought into use before we had lost so many by the old fashioned pullkins and twistors.

A certain writer says, "No fragment of an army ever survived so many battles as the Bible; no citadel ever withstood so many sieges, no work was ever battered by so many hurricanes and so swept by storms. And yet it stands."

A more glorious victory cannot be gained over another man than this. That when the injury began on his part, the kindness should begin on ours. If both the ways were equally in our power, yet it is a much more desirable conquest to overcome evil with good, than with evil.

The Southern Loyalists.

There is a small nomadic party in the South who are anxious to grasp the control of affairs in the States lately in rebellion; and, hence, appeals are being constantly made by them to Congress to have the present ten excluded States readmitted back to a territorial relation, and new constitutions and laws created by "loyal citizens"—meaning themselves only, and excluding all persons who took part in the "rebellion." They are a pretty set to aspire to so much power. They are destitute of every noble sentiment. Their desire is to place the States in the sad condition in which Tennessee now is—to create political anarchy and oppression by the few over the many.

Our people would do well to mark these fellows—these "tar and turpentine politicians"—these nomadic aspirants for political power whereby they may upstart and destroy in order that they may wreak their vengeance upon the people of the Southern States. They are men who, heretofore, held no position either politically or socially, but are generally men of little or no character for intellect or patriotism. They are political "skunks," whose very presence makes the air they breathe a stench in the nostrils of all true men—especially all true Southerners. They should be watched as the thief & the murderer are watched; they should be treated wherever they go as such villains are treated—with contempt and scorn, derision and contumely.—La Grange Reporter.

Legislative Summary.

In the Senate, yesterday, bills were introduced, on the end of the districts, to encourage manufacturers; to aid in the construction of certain canals where the statute of limitations is pleaded; and to encourage agriculture by securing to laborers their wages by a lien on the growing crop. Besides several of a special character, the Senate passed bills to create a new county to be called "Dixie"; and to amend an Act to regulate judicial proceedings. A long discussion ensued on the Senate bill to establish a system of internal improvements, pending which the Senate adjourned.

In the House the time was mostly occupied in discussing the bill to amend the charter of the New Orleans and Chattanooga Railroad Company, on which the House was engaged until half past six last evening. Various amendments, chiefly by opponents of the bill, were offered and adopted or rejected.

The Judiciary Committee reported favorably on the bill to remove the Capital of the State to Mobile, and on account of the absence of one or more members who will submit a minority report, the bill was postponed until Wednesday next.

A considerable number of bills, of a local as well as a general nature, were introduced and appropriately referred.

A large number of House bills were acted on by the Senate yesterday. A bill was offered by Mr. Ashley and passed authorizing the sale of railroad from Pollard to the Florida line to be made by the Alabama and Florida route of this State, to the road of the same in Florida. Mr. Barnes introduced a bill which passed making Courts of Probate Courts of general jurisdiction. An important report was made by Mr. Foster, accompanied by a bill to furnish artificial limbs to maimed soldiers. The report Mr. Garrett Chairman of the Select Committee to investigate the financial condition of the State shows the amount of debts to be $567,857.70—and the amount in the treasury to be $177,331.24. A great part of the State tax has not been received.

In the course of Mr. Meaders introduction of a bill declaring a general amnesty for officers against the laws of the State. It is similar to the law recently enacted in North Carolina. The bill was referred to Mr. Van Sack, of Co. 3, also offered a resolution which was adopted appointing Committee to enquire what amount of the 3 per cent fund has been appropriated to the Alabama Central Railroad &c.

Many local bills were offered. The Chattanooga and New Orleans Railroad bill was discussed at great length by several members, and the bill finally ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

Advertiser, 29th.

The time of the Senate yesterday was mostly consumed in discussing the important "Internal Improvement" bill. Every section of the bill was so amended that its author would now scarcely know it. The consideration of the bill will be resumed this morning.

A bill was passed incorporating the Hebrew Ladies' Benevolent Society, of Montgomery.

A bill to provide that slaves purchased during the war should not be paid for, except for the time of their slavery, was introduced and referred.

In the House a great number of reports were made from the Committees on Incorporations. A report was made by Mr. Morse, Chairman of the Committee on Federal relations, adversely to memorializing Congress to pass a general bankrupt law. An adverse report on the bill to abolish the office of Commissioner and Trustee of the State Bank and branch s was concurred in.

Adv. Feb. 2.

In the Senate yesterday a resolution was adopted that the Legislature adjourn sine die on Thursday, the 14th inst. A bill was passed to pay M. P. Blue, for a map of Montgomery and adjoining counties.

The Internal Improvement bill passed Yeas Mr. President, Ashley; Barnes, Bell, Boykin, Cooper, Deason, Edwards, Foster, Gage, Garret, Huckabee, Jackson, of L. Jackson, of M., Kilpatrick, Mitchell, Montgomery, Pow-ll, of M., Powell, of T., Staniel, Winston, Wood-Bill—28. Nays, Casten, Drake, Felder, Forney, Jones, Moren, Norwood, Sykes, Wood—9.

The adverse report to the bill requiring Cashiers of Banks to protect their bills when presented for payment, was concurred in.

The House was engaged during the whole forenoon session in considering reports from the Committees of Accounts and Claims, on petitions for demands on the State Treasury, the great majority of which were adverse. The reports were generally concurred in, in order, as many members believed, to save the State from bankruptcy if the precedent of entertaining such petitions was established.

We clip the following article from the Constitutional Union, and we confess it affords us a certain degree of relief to contemplate the possibility that the disasters with which the Northern people have overwhelmed the South, will at no distant day, recoil with fearful retribution upon the heads of our enemies.—Rome Courier.

SOUTHERN COMERS.—An awful and tremendous howl has gone up from the slaveholders of Massachusetts. There is a strange and terrible falling off in their sales of boots, shoes, brogans pumps and slippers. The shoepeg men are coming to grief, and the dealers in leather are in deep affliction. While the war lasted, the demand for, and consumption of shoes, were enormous; for the soldier had to be shod, and they marched out their shoes very rapidly. The Puritan cobblers did a fine business with fat contracts, swindling y performed on their part, as long as hostilities continued. But, alas! peace came, or at least the army was disbanded, and Massachusetts could no longer fleece the Government by shoe contracts. What then? Why, Sir, in that case her good old customers in the South would come forward, as of old, and be cheated as badly as ever. Not a bit of it. Not however, from a determination on their part to be cheated no longer, but because they were too poor to buy, and had no negroes to buy shoes for. This is the first serious recoil of the calamities of emancipation upon its chief authors, and the blow strikes hard—for every third man in the Bay State is a shoe-maker, or directly interested in the shoe trade. With cotton, sugar, rice and tobacco almost unaffiliated, does New England suppose the South can continue to be a good customer and that she can sell her $30,000,000 worth of boots and shoes, as she did prior to the war? The fact is New England philanthropy has left us nothing to sell, and consequently we have nothing to buy. She ought to have thought of all this when cutting our throats, burning our houses liberating our slaves and stealing our pianos, watches and silver plate. But it is not alone the trade of New England that will feel the pressure of that poverty which has been visited upon the South. Ere long a wail will go up from the cotton princes of Lowell. When too late to retrieve her fortunes, and repair the wrongs perpetrated upon us, New England will vainly wish she had left Cuffee and the Southern planters alone. These modern Philistines have shown our locks and put out our eyes, but in doing so they have left us in our poverty and wretchedness a desperate strength, which, like blind Samson, will overwhelm them with ruin even in the temple of their Dagon—the Almighty Dollar.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—SENATE.—The traffic bill passed 27 to 10. It goes back to the House for concurrence in the amendments.

Jay Cooke, of Pennsylvania, Gov. Smyth, of New Hampshire, Thos. B. Page and Jno. W. Bliss, of Ohio, E. G. Noyes, of Indiana, and other prominent bankers and business men, had a consultation with the Comptroller, and the Secretary of the Treasury had an interview with the Senate Finance Committee, and they all agreed on a bill for refitting the compound interest notes by the issue of National Banks of temporary loan certificates, bearing four per cent interest payable in lawful money, on demand. This temporary loan shall not exceed one hundred millions.

rapidly tending to the destruction, not only of the Government, but of the whole people. It is madly creating a financial crisis, which will involve the rich and the poor alike in one common catastrophe. It will not only destroy the public credit, break the bank and the treasury, stop the mills, silence the forges, suspend all commerce, and paralyze the hands of industry, but it will bring gaunt, stark, relentless want to the doors of all, the highest and lowest in the land.

This is the picture that the unerring fingers of fate are painted in ineffaceable colors upon our whole horizon. It cannot much longer be shut out from the unwilling vision of the destructives in Congress. It is the nameless terror they are themselves recklessly invoking. Let them pause in their career and contemplate its awful revelations.

The cypress of Samarra, in Lombardy Italy, is perhaps the oldest tree on record. It was known to be in existence in the time of Julius Cæsar, forty-two years before Christ, and is therefore more than 1,900 years old. It is one hundred and five feet high, and twenty in circumference at one foot from the ground. Napoleon, when laying down the plan for his great road over the Simplon, a portion of the Alps, diverged from a straight line to avoid injuring this tree.

The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Gazette says:

If the Boutwell bill should receive the sanction of two thirds of both Houses, and the Supreme Court should declare it to be unconstitutional, and therefore refuse to comply with its requirements, (which will doubtless be the case) there can be now no longer a doubt but that Congress at its next session would resort to impeachment of the Judges, simultaneously with a similar process against the Executive. The naked power of the House to impeach, and the Senate to try Executive and Judicial officers is relied upon as authority enough by the revolutionist to annihilate the balances of the Constitution, and usurp the whole power of the country.

Mr. Wm. McFord has discovered on his farm, four miles from Charlotte, N. C., a rich vein of gold. At a depth of thirteen feet, he found a nugget weighing 32 pennyweights and the ore is worth, on an average about one hundred dollars per bushel.

AN AGED NEGRO.—"Aunt Mollie," a colored woman formerly belonging to Captain James M. Harris, residing near Rockfish Gap, in Nelson county, died at the residence of that gentleman on the 1st inst. In the one hundred and thirty-sixth year of her age. She was born in 1731, in the beginning of the reign of George II. She was a contemporary of Pope, Swift and Goldsmith, though probably she never heard of them.

A CARD TO INVALIDS.

A Clergyman, while residing in South America and missionary, discovered a safe and simple remedy for the cure of Nervous Weakness, Early Decay, Diseases of the Urinary and Seminal Organs, and the whole train of disorders brought on by baneful and vicious habits. Great numbers have been cured by this noble remedy. Prompted by a desire to benefit the afflicted and unfortunate, I will send the recipe for preparing and using this medicine, in a sealed envelope, to any one who needs it. Free of Charge.

Please enclose an envelope, addressed to yourself.

DISTRIBUTION.

We would call attention to the opinion of one of the leading papers of Canada on this subject:

Most of our readers have no doubt read one of the numerous advertisements of Gift Enterprises, Gift Concerns, &c., which appear from time to time in the public prints, offering most tempting bargains to those who will patronize them. In most cases these are genuine humbugs. But there are a few respectable firms who do business in this manner, and they do it as a means of increasing their wholesale business, and not to make money. From such firms, it is true, handsome and valuable articles are procured for a very small sum, and what is more important, no one is ever cheated. Every one gets good value for his dollar; because, as we have stated, it is intended to act as an advertisement to increase their ordinary business. We have seen numbers of prizes sent out in this way by SHERMAN, WATSON & COMPANY, of Nassau street, N. Y., and there is no doubt that some of the articles are worth eight or ten times the money paid for them, while we have not seen or heard of a single article which was not fully worth the dollar which it cost. But this is only one of the exceptions to this rule, for as a general thing the parties engaged in this business are nothing but clever swindlers.

(Saturday Reader, Montreal, c. e., Jan. 13, '66)

J. HICKLING & Co's

Great Sale of Watches.

On the popular one price plan, giving every patron a handsome and reliable watch for the low price of Ten Dollars! Without regard to value, and not to be paid for unless perfectly satisfactory!

500 Solid Gold 11½ Watches $250 to 750
500 ladies case Gold Watches 200 to 500
1,000 Ladies Watches, Enamelled 100 to 300
1,000 Gold Hunting Chron. watches 250 to 300
1,000 Gold Hunting Eng. Levers 150 to 250
3,000 Gold 11½ Watches 150 to 250
5,000 Gold 11½ Watches 100 to 250
5,000 Silver Hunting Levers 50 to 150
5,000 Silver Hunting Duplexes 75 to 250
5,000 Gold Ladies Watches 50 to 250
10,000 Gold Hunting Levers 50 to 75
10,000 Miscellaneous Silver Watches 50 to 100
25,000 Hunting silver Watches 35 to 50
30,000 Assorted watches all kinds 10 to 75
Every patron obtains a watch by this arrangement, costing but $10, while it may be worth $750. No partiality shown.

Messrs. J. Hickling & Co's Great American Watch Co., New York city, wish to immediately dispose of the above magnificent stock. Certificates naming articles are placed in sealed envelopes. Holders are entitled to the articles named on their certificates, upon payment of Ten Dollars, whether it be a watch worth $750 or one worth less. The return of any of our certificates entitles you to the article named thereon, upon payment, irrespective of its worth, and as no article valued less than $10 is named on any certificate, it will at once be seen that this is no lottery, but a straightforward legitimate transaction, which may be participated in even by the most fastidious!

A single certificate will be sent by mail, post-paid, upon receipt of 25 cents, five for $1, eleven for $2, thirty-three and elegant premium for $5, sixty-six and more valuable premium for $10, one hundred and most superb watch for $15. To Agents or those wishing employment this is a rare opportunity. It is a legitimately conducted business, duly authorized by government, and open to the most careful scrutiny. Try us!

WILLIAM J. SHARP'S

Improved Billiard Tables,

With his PATENT CUSHIONS.

Well known to be superior to any now in use.

Manufactory, 43 Mercer St., N. Y.

THE great popularity of SHARP'S IMPROVED BILLIARD TABLES has rendered it necessary to make arrangements, in order to supply the increasing demand, and he is now prepared to fill any order with which his patron, or the public generally may favor him.

W. J. Sharp having had practical experience for nearly twenty years, in the manufacture of Billiard Tables, and having made a number of valuable improvements, he guarantees a Table, which for elasticity of touch, chemical elegance of appearance, will challenge competition.

His newly invented patent Cushions having been pronounced by the most competent judges to be superior to any now in use, he is enabled to furnish the best Billiard Table manufactured in the United States, and sustain the name which Sharp's Tables so justly have acquired.

Balls, Cues and Trimmings constantly on hand. Old Cushions repaired at short notice. Orders by mail punctually attended to. Send for descriptive circular and price list.

W. J. SHARP, 43 Mercer Street, New York.

BROWN & PERKINS.

Pianos for the People!

420 Broome St., N. Y.

We would call the attention of the public and the trade to our elegant New Scale Pianos in the following styles:

STYLE A, 7 octave Front large round corners, plain case, either octagon or curved legs, straight bottom, bead moulding on plinth.....$150
STYLE B, 7 octave, same as style A, with serpentine moulding on plinth, curved legs and lyre.....$200
STYLE C, 7 octave, Front corners large round, serpentine bottom, mouldings same as on style B, curved lyre and desk, fancy carved legs.....$250
STYLE D, 7 octave, Four large round corners, finished back, mouldings on rim and plinth, serpentine bottom, curved lyre and desk, elegant carved fruit legs.....$300

The above styles are all finished in elegant Rosewood case and have the full iron frame, French action, harp pedal, beveled top, iron legs and key frame, and exceed in overstrung tones, nearly all the 71 Octave Pianos now manufactured. They are made of the best materials, and for finish, durability, purity and sweetness of tone, cannot be surpassed.

The four styles described above, embody all the essential changes in exterior finish of cases, which are by many manufacturers run up to 15 and 20 pattern.

We invite the attention of the public of dealers and the profession, to a critical examination of the merits of our Pianos. By avoiding the great expense attendant upon costly factories and expensive warehouses in the city, we are enabled to offer these Pianos at prices which defy competition, and invite all to call and examine them before purchasing elsewhere.

When references and testimonials are required by those about to purchase, instead of presenting a display of professional names, we refer to the parties to whom we have sold our Pianos. Their judgment needs no demonstration of our instruments as to their durability, touch, sweetness, and power of tone, standing in time, &c., based on an actual experience, bring far more value than the mere good opinion of the Artist, however capable, who merely tries them in a warehouse, instruments in perfect tune and order, which have just received the workmen's last finishing touches.

Our motto is "QUICK SALES AND SMALL PROFITS."

Send for a Circular, to BROWN & PERKINS, 420 Broome Street, N. Y.

Allen Elston, Esq.,

John W. Hanna, Esq.,

Doct. T. J. Hanna & Ann Crozier,

Garrison's, for an order of publication against the Deft. John W. Hanna, as a non-resident; and it appearing that the said J. W. Hanna is a non-resident of the State of Alabama. It is therefore ordered by the Jacksonville Republican, a newspaper published in the county of Calhoun, for four consecutive weeks, requiring said Deft. to appear at the next term of this court, and defend this suit; and that the Clerk of this court send said Defendant a copy of this order, if his office be known. A true copy from the minutes, this 8th day of Feb. 1867.

G. B. DOUTHITT, Clerk.

Feb. 9, 1867—10 00.

STATE OF ALABAMA,

Calhoun County.

Court of Probate for said county, February 3rd, 1867.

THIS day came John and N. B. Ross, and produces to the Court, a paper purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Frederick Ross, lately of said County, deceased, and moves the Court to admit the said Will to Probate and issue Letters Testamentary on the Estate of the said deceased to the said John and N. B. Ross, as the Executors of the same; and Thomas W. Ross, Sarah A. Blackburn, Martha E. Tulin and A. J. Ross, are shown to be non-resident Legatees of said Estate.

The Scent of the Roses will Hang Round It Still.

Not long ago we published an account of an imbrigo between the negroes and the Sea Island. Under the leadership of a negro from Boston named Bradley, the Sea Island Cuffees desired to hire themselves to the planters and insisted upon holding possession of the lands. The Bureau General, Scott, and the scene of operations, and in due time to remove to other lands. It seems, however, that they have reconsidered the matter, invaded the plantations driven away the planters, and hold possession, under the New England resolution—that the Sea Islands belong to the Lord's anointed and that they are "the Lord's anointed." It seems, also, that the Bureau have marched against the Samboes, that a collision has occurred, and that Lieut. Lemon, of the Bureau, was shot in the arm. He returned the fire killing the negro. It is reported that the negroes have Capt. Brandt prisoner. Col Sibley with 70 men, has gone to the scene. Thus, it appears that Aetou is about to be eaten up by his own dogs.

The meeting of the Bureau and the Samboes in daily conflict will be like when "Lionel meets Loochilo"—like when Turk meets Turk!

We shall await in breathless suspense the announcement of gallant deeds, before which the capture of Fort Tabouan at Rome will pale into insignificance. Already we see before us such dispatches as these—"The colored troops fought gallantly."—"The Bureau rush upon a masked battery of odors and are repulsed."—"The Samboes capture a national flag and three pieces of artillery."—"The Bureau gain the greatest Union victory of the age."—"The air is full of sulphur and perfume." Then, we shall recount how reinforcements came up under Griffin, Buckley and other gallant leaders, embracing the veterans of Fort Tabouan, and how they rushed upon the enemy, until the atmosphere in the rear of both lines is fragrant as "Seban odors from the spicy shores of Araby, the blest."

Sidney Smith upon visiting Cologne distinguished nineteen separate and distinct smells. But, the visitor to the scene of battle between the Bureau and Samboes will be able to perceive not less than one thousand well defined odors. On with the combat! The victory in this case will rest with the strong!—and the scent of the Bureau will hang round us still!—Mont. Mail.

Reported Views of Secretary Stanton on the Situation.

The Washington correspondent of the Boston Post sends the following to that journal:—"Hon John Coville called upon Secretary Stanton yesterday, and there ensued a long and a loudly discourse on the status of the country. Mr. Stanton appeared very despondent of discussing the current events of national import, and expressed himself freely. He confessed that from the very outset of the situation of the executive and legislative branches of the Government had caused him the liveliest alarm, which, since the movement toward impeachment, had increased to an apprehension of revolution and anarchy. The burden of his remarks was a regard to certain acts of the President and Congress, and he pointed gloomily to the deleterious effects of each upon the nation. In parting with Coville, Mr. Stanton remarked: 'I aided to place two millions of men in the field to put down the rebellion; three hundred thousand have bitten the dust, and an equal number are ciphers throughout the land; and yet, with all this tremendous effort and corresponding sacrifice, the country in my judgment, is shadowed with gloom of a darker hour than was incident to any crisis of the late war.' This latter expression of Mr. Stanton's solicitude is given me with scrupulous exactitude by a gentleman minute and acquainted with every circumstance in the premises, and who further aver that the Secretary seemed completely unmanned when he uttered the last remarks and abruptly turned from his visitors to conceal his emotion."

A SEVERE WINTER.—We have had some cold weather in Charleston this Winter, but we cannot be said to have suffered to any great extent, and if we will not believe the accounts of the weather in other parts of the country will find cause to congratulate ourselves on our mild climate. In Philadelphia on the 17th instant the weather was such as to greatly impede the trains on all the roads leading into the city. The day before that near Springfield, Mass., two express cars that had been snowed up were robbed of their contents, and the robbers escaped. On the 16th four or five inches of snow being in some places four feet deep. On the same day at New Haven, Conn., they had the severest snow storm that had occurred for ten years, the drift being in some places twenty feet deep. There was also a heavy snow on New York on the same day. On the 17th fifty-two river crafts were swept away and destroyed by the ice on the Ohio at Cincinnati. A telegram from Kingston, C. E., of the 16th said that the ice bridge across the St. Lawrence at that point was in good order, and that stages were running regularly across it, the thermometer standing at five degrees below zero. In our telegraphic column this morning will be found an account of a telegraph operator frozen to death in New York, a terrible snow storm in Baltimore, a great gate at Fortress Monroe snow twenty feet deep on the Western plains.

Splendid Specimen of Art.

We were shown the other day a set of teeth, inserted in a plate on the new plan of Vulcanite Base, the latest improvement in mechanical dentistry. This piece of work was executed by Dr.

H. T. Spalding, Surgeon Dentist of this place. We thought it decidedly the most life-like, neat, finished and beautiful piece of work of the kind we had ever seen. These plates are said to wear more agreeably in the mouth than gold, to be equally durable, and less liable to break or get out of order; and, what is of great importance these plates, cost only half as much.

Now is the time, if you need work of this kind, or any other in his line,

to have it done, while you can avail yourself of the services of so finished an artist as Dr. Spalding. He warrants all his work.

New Steam Flouring Mill.

Our worthy, energetic and enterprising townsman, Mr. Wm. Adams, has now in successful operation, his new

Steam Flouring Mill. We have not yet had a sample of flour manufactured by him, but have been informed by those who have, and who are excellent judges, that his flour is of superior quality, in fact, equal in every respect to that manufactured by any mills of the country.

Mr. Adams possesses mechanical genius of high order, and with the assistance of that competent and experienced practical Miller, A. Adersholt, jr. can not fail to give general satisfaction.

This enterprise will be a great advantage and convenience to our town and vicinity, and we confidently trust, will receive that measure of patronage which will render it highly remunerative.

Business Change.—Mr. R.

A. Pettibone having purchased the interest of Mr. N. D. Johnson in the Receiving and Forwarding Business, will continue the business in his own name and at the same place.

Mr. Pettibone is well known, as an experienced, correct, competent and energetic business man, altogether worthy of confidence and patronage. His warehouse is very conveniently situated for this section of country, being near the terminus of the Alabama & Tennessee

Rivers Railroad. He proposes to receive and forward goods upon terms as favorable as any house in Selma.

The Legislature, now in session

lectors to the first day of April, 1867; assent of their securities.

Election in Cleburne.

We learn from persons from Cleburne county, that the election which took place in that county on Monday last,

resulted in the election of the entire ticket nominated by the "Loyal League."

The County Seat question was not settled, in consequence of the failure of either of the three places nominated to receive the requisite majority. It will be decided, we understand, between the two places known as Story's and Edwards' at another election to be held on the second Monday in March.

The New Englanders are a very phil-

NOON DISPATCHES.

From Washington.

Washington, Feb. 7.—General Dan

Sickles' wife is dead.

Louisiana has unanimously rejected the Amendment and unanimously concurred in the Senate bill calling a State

Constitutional Convention. Veto expected. There were two unsuccessful ballotings for Senator.

Senator Saulsbury, of Delaware authorizes a denial of the statement of his intended resignation.

Gov. Brown, of Georgia, is here.

The Pennsylvania House of Representatives has passed the Constitutional Amendment by a party vote.

The President approved the bill punishing tampering with securities—punishing the printing thereon of any advertisement. Also, the Habeas Corpus bill, from the benefits of which persons now held for rebellion are excluded.

Washington, Feb. 7.—The bill for the more efficient government of the insurrectionary States was taken up. Mr.

Stevens opened the debate. There will probably be no vote until to-morrow.

NIGHT DISPATCHES.

From Washington.

Washington, Feb. 7.—House.—After unimportant business, the Reconstruction Committee bill was taken up. Stevens had not made up his mind beyond desiring a vote as early as possible, and would not agree to postpone the vote till

Monday.

LeBlond said the bill struck down the civil governments in the South, ignored

State lines, and would break down the Judiciary.

Raymond proposed, in view of its importance, to allow twenty minutes. It was finally agreed to hold night sessions for discussion.

Mr. Ashley rose to a personal explanation regarding newspaper correspondence, in which he took occasion to denounce the President, but denied complacency with Gen. Butler or intention to stab Gen. Grant in the back.

The Reconstruction Committee reported favorably of the official conduct of Mr. Van Dyke, Assistant Treasurer in

New York.

Stevens and Brander made characteristic speeches in favor of the bill for the government of the insurrectionary

States. The latter says the bill com-

years ago, he would promise that the sword of the Republic was about to be again unsheathed.

LeBlond and Fink opposed; Pike opposed; and Farnsworth followed the same side. Rogers spoke an hour in opposition, saying rather than have military government established in this country, he for one would use all the power the Almighty gave him, in resisting the invasion of his liberties. Thayer interrupted Rogers about it costing him his neck. Rogers continued that if the South had the blood of Washington,

Jefferson, Madison, the sages of the revolution, they would protest, as their fathers had protested, by their blood, against the despotism of King George. He hoped the President would resist; would use all the powers the Constitution gave him to compel traitors to obey the laws.

If Andrew Johnson, added Mr. Rogers, would submit to see the country destroyed, his name would go down with ignominy to posterity as a coward and a traitor.

Mr. Bingham spoke very briefly; placing himself squarely against the measure, when the House took a recess until 11 o'clock.

Senate.—The Clerk read a dispatch from Nashville announcing universal suffrage in Tennessee.

The Judiciary Committee reported bills for enrolling and calling out the militia, and for preventing corporate punishment.

The Appropriation bill was taken up and discussed until recess.

Fred Seward arrived mysteriously as he departed.

Internal revenue to-day over half a million.

Stevens' bill was resumed. Raymond said it was clear there was not unanimity, though to secure the effectiveness of the measure none of the propositions before the House had sufficient majority to carry it out, even if it passed.

The time had arrived for Congress to concoct some measure which would secure an effective unanimity, and command the support of all the departments of the Government. He proposed that the whole matter be referred to a committee of five or seven, of which Stevens should be chairman, to report a bill by Wednesday, for the protection of life and liberty in the South, and for a special re-admission of those States.

In the course of the debate Shallenberger said that the New Orleans Riot Committee would, on Monday next, present a bill for civil organization in that State. Raymond was glad to hear it.

He announced the death of Grider, an appropriate resolutions passed, when the House adjourned.

Associated Press Reports.

NOON DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—Banks yesterday, in appealing to Stevens against pressing a vote, used the following language:

"I believe that a day or two devoted to the subject of reconstruction of the Government, will bring us to a solution, in which we shall agree, in which the two Houses shall agree, in which the people of the country will sustain us, and on which the President will give us his support."

This speech gives rise to various speculations. It is understood, however, that Banks was in council with Southerners recently, and that he favors their proposed policy. Banks intimated that any Congressional policy would be futile in its operation if opposed by the Executive. We must have laws in which the Executive will co-operate, in order to make those laws effective.

If we fail to secure co-operation in the laws, it is our duty to drop lawmaking, and consider the purpose and position of the President himself.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—Senate.—The memorial of Mary Leloup, whose husband was killed in the New Orleans riots, asking for relief, was referred to the Committee on Pensions.

The motion to reconsider the vote against the Bankrupt Bill was carried,

but its reconsideration was postponed.

The Senate considered the District bills.

After executive session, the death of Henry Grid-er, of Kentucky, was announced. Mr. Davis pronounced a eulogy, when the Senate adjourned.

House.—The consideration of Stevens' bill was resumed. Mr. Banks took the floor. He believed the State late in rebellion were still States, but may be regarded in a state of siege. He would not object to placing them under martial law, but the bill went further—establishing a government, responsible neither to Congress nor the people, but to the commander of the army. Another objection is, that there is not a letter nor a line looking to the establishment of any other than a military government.

Mr. Ashley rose to a question of order, and called up the Nebraska veto and Senate's action thereon. The message was read, when Ashley moved the previous question, and the bill passed—

(23 to 44)—Davis and Raymond voting

PORTY.

For the Republican.
Farewell to Sixty-Six.

Farewell, adieu to Sixty-six,
Your fronts and flowers are gone,
No more you'll bless, no more you'll vex,
For as a dream you've flown.

But Oh! you brought me much of bliss,
When Spring-time came with flowers,
Whose sweet perfume I sadly miss,
Now in your wintry hours.

Your Summer brought me songs and fruit,
And made my heart feel gay;
But now your songsters all are mute,
Your fruits have passed away.

You brought me some who called me friend,
And some of those I've proved;
But some alas! no more will lend,
Those smiles I dearly loved.

You brought me one, the pure in heart,
The fairest form on earth,
And bade my sorrows all depart
Before her matchless worth.

Ere this I was in deepest night,
And lost in deserts bare,
She was the Moon my way to light,
And fill my heart with cheer.

But Oh! that Moon so soon did set,
And me left faint and sore,
And left me with the vain regret
That she would rise no more.

Sweet Althea though I must be,
Forer a wanderer now,
I'll ever sweetly dream of thee,
With mild and snowy brow.

More charms are thine than Cepheus boasts,
Or Ariadne shows,
Oh heaven! withhold the chilling frost,
From where this loved one goes.

Now Sixty-six farewell, I know
My memory oft shall bring,
The blessings that you did me do,
And every hidden thing.

WILLIE O'HARA LEF.
Montgomery, Ala., Dec. 31st, 1866.

Is Booth Still Alive, and Who Killed
President Lincoln?

A correspondent of the Memphis Avalanche refers to the late reports concerning J. Wilkes Booth, and says it will be remembered that it was positively stated in the Spring of 1866 that he had been seen and recognized on the Island of Cuba. Afterwards it was said he had been seen in Italy. He says that some time last Summer a man was arrested in Kentucky on a charge of horse stealing, and lodged in jail. He gave his name as King, and wrote to General Jefferson C. Davis, of the United States army, stating that he desired to make a confession to him of importance to the country. General Davis went to the prison, and the newspapers stated that he was occupied nearly an entire day in taking down the confession of the man. The newspapers also stated that the confession was, that Booth was not the assassin of Lincoln, but that the man King committed the crime and that after the shooting of Lincoln he leaped upon the stage of the theatre and passed out to the back door, where Booth was with the horses. The two rode rapidly to the residence of Mr. Seward. King dismounted and went in and attempted to kill Seward. He then returned to Booth and the two made their escape through Maryland on horseback, and thence to Canada, and soon after they went to Cuba, where he separated from Booth in the Spring of 1866 and came to Kentucky. He called the attention of the General to the fact that no proof had ever been made identifying Booth with the killing except the testimony of Laura Keane, an actress, who, he stated, was a personal enemy of Booth. King said it not Booth, but him. He also said that Mrs. Surratt knew nothing of the conspiracy, and he gave information to the said official where certain papers could be found that would throw light upon the subject.

I propose to call your attention to certain facts that have an important bearing upon the whole question as to the probability of Booth not having been the man who was shot in the barn when Harold was arrested. The history of the matter, as given to the public at the time, is that Harold was arrested and Boston Corbett had shot Booth; they put the dead body in a wagon, and proceeded with it towards Washington City, the news of their success having reached Washington before them. Baker, the Chief Detective of the Secretary of War, Mr. Stanton, went to meet the party who had killed Booth and captured Harold. Upon meeting them, Baker and Corbett took possession of the reputed dead body of Booth, and, as they say, buried it in some secret place, that is known to no person living except Baker and Corbett, and they both took a solemn oath over the grave that they would never reveal the burial place. A large reward had been offered by the Government for the apprehension of Booth, and does it not seem most natural that if the man in the barn was Booth, that Baker and Corbett would have carried the body to Washington City, where the body, if that of Booth, could have been identified by thousands who knew him, and thus shown to all that the captors had shown themselves entitled to receive the reward.

Where is the testimony showing any proof that the statement of Baker and Corbett that the body buried was that of Booth? It is not even asserted that Harold confessed that it was Booth. He stated that he was with Booth at the back door of the theatre, but does not say it was Booth who was killed in the barn. The papers stated that after General J. C. Davis received the confession of the man King, he forwarded it to the Secretary of War. Since that time the public has learned nothing of the matter, and the question is what has become of King? and if the papers which referred General Davis to have been found, what light do they throw on the subject? The matter is now supposed to be in the hands and under the control of Mr. Stanton. Now who could be benefitted by the death of Lincoln? Certainly not the Confederates, for the war was over. The public was told by the newspapers of the time, and particularly those of the Radical party, that on the day of the night of the assassination, Mr. Lincoln had called and held a cabinet meeting, and at said meeting, Mr. Lincoln had informed the cabinet that he intended to issue a proclamation declaring the rebellion at an end, placing the Southern States in the same relations as occupied by them toward the United States, before the war, and also granting general pardon and amnesty. It was also said that Secretary Seward endorsed the position of Mr. Lincoln, although not able to be at the cabinet meeting. Suppose such a proclamation had been made by Lincoln, would it not have been a death blow to the Radical party? They would have been deprived at one blow of the absence of reconstructing the South or of intermeddling in the internal affairs of the States. That party would have dropped dead and the Union would have been put upon its former basis, except as to the existence of African slavery in the Southern States.

The Radicals would have been prevented from overriding the Constitution, and, in fact, that party would have been powerless, inasmuch as slavery had been abolished, and there would have been nothing to feed their dupes upon. But Lincoln was killed the night after he had expressed himself in regard to the proclamation. It is probable the people of the United States would like to know why the Secretary of War and a Radical Congress permitted or directed Baker to receive the greater portion of the reward offered for the apprehension of Booth upon such slim testimony, when Mr. Stanton had it in his power to force Baker to produce the dead body, he being the superior officer and master, so to speak, of the creature Baker? Why was Baker brevetted Brigadier General by Mr. Stanton soon after Booth was said to have been killed?

Although the Kentucky man tells General Davis that he murdered Lincoln, and this fact was made known to Stanton, we hear of no noise made about it. Congress has not appointed a committee to investigate the affair. The question presents itself, what has become of the man who confesses to have killed Lincoln and tried to murder Seward? The whole matter in regard to him seems to have been hushed up in some way. It might be of some interest to the public to know what has become of King. Is he still in Kentucky in prison awaiting his trial as a thief? or has the War department taken charge of him? When the dispatch from General Davis, in regard to King's confession, reached Stanton, what order was given in regard to him, and why has he not been tried before a "Military Commission" or a court for the murder? They hung a woman who said at the gallows she was innocent; why don't Stanton, have this man hung, who says "I murdered Abraham Lincoln?" While all the Radical papers and stump speakers and congressmen are charging that Jeff. Davis was implicated in the assassination plot, why don't they say something about the way Stanton allowed his man Baker to put away that dead body? Or cry aloud and groan heavily because Stanton don't hang King? Why is it that no attempt was made upon the life of any one but Lincoln and Seward, who, it was stated, agreed to the proclamation granting amnesty to all? You will observe I accuse no one; but there is such a fog floating around this whole matter, that I, for one, would like to be able to see more clearly through it.

If the United States were as densely populated as France, our population would amount to 528,000,000; if as densely as Belgium the United States would contain 1,195,000,000 inhabitants—110,086,000 more than the population of the entire world in 1866.

RAICAL OPINION OF RENEGADE SOUTHERNERS.—A Washington letter says: "The Radicals, in private conversation, do not hesitate to express their contempt for men of Southern birth who are hanging to their skirts for place and plunder. I heard a very prominent one the other day affirm, with an oath not quite proper to be repeated to 'ears polite,' that he would sooner touch pitch than the hand of Bond, your recreant Judge. The compliment was paid in the way of assigning reasons for refusing to be introduced to the 'Judge' upon his recent visit here. 'It is one of the most offensive necessities of party,' said the same gentleman, 'that men capable of betraying their section, their fellow-townsmen, their neighbors, their very flesh and blood, for mere office and its emoluments, should, to advance party ends, be permitted to contaminate the society of gentlemen.'"

Improved Billiard Tables,

With his PATENT CUSHIONS,
Well known to be superior to any now in use.

Manufactory, 43 Mercer St., N. Y.

THE great popularity of SHARP'S IMPROVED BILLIARD TABLES has rendered it necessary to make arrangements, in order to supply the increasing demand, and he is now prepared to fill any order with which his patron, or the public generally may favor him.

W. J. Sharp having had practical experience for nearly twenty years, in the manufacture of Billiard Tables, and having made a number of valuable improvements, he guarantees a Table, which for elasticity of touch, mechanical elegance of appearance, will challenge competition.

His newly invented patent Cushions having been pronounced by the most competent judges to be superior to any now in use, he is enabled to furnish the best Billiard Table manufactured in the United States, and sustain the name which Sharp's Tables so justly have acquired.

Balls, Cues and Trimmings constantly on hand. Old Cushions repaired at short notice. Orders by mail punctually attended to.

COMMERCIAL COLLEGE.

The exercises of this new, useful, and important institution will commence on the first Monday in March, 1867, provided as many as ten students are obtained in time to make the necessary preparation, though twenty or more are desired to complete the School.

The course of instruction will embrace Penmanship—Book-keeping, Double and Single entry—a perfect course in Arithmetic, including all commercial Calculations—Lectures on Commercial Law, &c.

Young men and youths desiring to attend the first and opening session, will please advise me very soon in person, or if residing at a distance, by letter. They will have ample time to make all necessary arrangements to come. Any who may desire to board themselves could doubtless get a room or rooms here very low.

Those who enter at the commencement of the session, will stand a fair chance to graduate at its close, and if they do, I am satisfied they will afterwards feel that they would not have missed it for five hundred dollars or more; for there is no doubt that it would enable them to command a salary of from $1,000 to $1,500 the first year. One object is to fit them for the most, easiest and best paying situations in the catalogue of business.

Knowing as I do, the importance and good results of such an institution, I argue the question and urge it myself; not alone for a school, or for the good which will result to those who attend the first session, but to found and establish the institution; so that it may be permanent, and continue to increase in popularity and usefulness to those attending in after years. Don't let the little sum of fifty dollars deter you, as you can make the amount in one month or less, after the session ends, if you seek a situation.

GROVESTEE & CO. Piano-Forte Manufacturers,

499, Broadway, New York.

THE attention of the public and the trade is invited to our New Scale, Seven Octave, Rosewood Piano-Fortes, which for volume and purity of tone are unrivalled by any hitherto offered in this market. They contain all the modern improvements—French grand action, hard padded, iron frame, over-strung bass, etc.—and each instrument being made under the personal supervision of Mr. J. H. GROVESTEE, who has a practical experience of over thirty years in their manufacture, is fully warranted in every particular.

The "Grovestee Piano-Forte"
Received the highest award of merit at the celebrated World's Fair,

Where were exhibited instruments from the best makers of London, Paris, Germany, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Boston and New York, and also at the American Institute for five successive years, the GOLD and SILVER MEDALS from both of which can be seen at our warehouses.

By the introduction of improvements we make a still more perfect Piano-Forte, and by manufacturing largely with a strict cast system, are enabled to offer these instruments at a price which will preclude all competition.

Our prices are from $100 to $200 cheaper than any other first-class Piano-Fortes.

To the afflicted

DR. GEORGE W. LEACH proposes a new system of cure in place of the astounding doses which enfeeble the stomach, poison the blood and endanger the life.
He can be consulted at any time in Jacksonville, personally or by letter, giving name of the person, whether over or under 35 years of age, and the disease. He cures croup, whooping cough, scarlet fever, diseases of the lungs, stomach, kidneys, and some other affections, and a very small amount in advance, afterwards if no cure no pay. He has a number of testimonials of cure—has recently treated 11 cases of cancer, seven of which are cures well and the others getting well.

M. J. & G. I. Turnley, as will be seen from their card, have recently formed a partnership, and will continue the practice of Law in the counties of Calhoun, Tallapoosa, Randolph, Cleburne, Cherokee, Baine, St. Clair and DeKalb, the Supreme Court of the State and the U. S. District Court of the Northern & Middle Divisions of Alabama.

One, the Hon. M. J. Turnley, is already well and favorably known in the counties they will practice in. The other, a young and promising lawyer, possesses such intellect joined with indefatigable perseverance and industry as will not let him remain long unknown.

We wish our young friend and co-partner success in his profession, the highest and most honorable position he may aspire to.

New York, Feb. 12.—S. B. Childen & Co., corner of Broadway and Leonard streets, burned out. Loss one million. The building, erected for the Society Library Association, is a substantial structure, valued at $1,000,000. Later in the same night another fire, which destroyed two entire blocks, with a loss of one building, loss $1,000,000; insurance supposed to be about $500,000.

Minnesota: Its Advantages to Settlers

"Minnesota: Its Advantages to Settlers"—We are indebted to Mrs. A. B. Hewitt, formerly a resident of Greensboro, but at present of St. Paul, Minnesota, for two pamphlets bearing the foregoing title. Persons wishing information as to the advantages which Minnesota offers to settlers in the way of climate, soil, etc., can obtain it from this publication, which we will take pleasure in lending to any one who may wish to investigate the subject.

Greensboro Review.

We have also received two copies of the above named pamphlet, by Colonel Girard Hewitt, Attorney at Law, formerly a citizen of this place, and afterwards of St. Clair, at both of which places he left many friends, sincerely attached to him on account of his correct and upright course of conduct and urbane and gentlemanly bearing.

The pamphlet contains a very graphic and forcibly written description of the Climate, Soil, Agricultural, Manufacturing and Commercial facilities of Minnesota, its Lakes, Rivers and Railroads, its Scenery, Growth, Productions, &c. We will take pleasure in lending the pamphlet to any of our friends who may desire to read it.

The New Plan for Reconstruction

—We have not thought it necessary heretofore to publish anything more than a brief synopsis of this proposition gotten up by Governors Orr, Shackley, Parsons and others, because we have not as yet seen any intimation that the Radicals in Congress would accept, or even so much as notice it.

These propositions coming from the South, reminds us of the case of the young man who told his friends that he was almost married; that he and all his friends were willing, but neither the girl nor any of hers were.

Gov. Patton, as it was his duty to do, has brought the matter to the notice of our Legislature, but without any recommendation, one way or another. We do not suppose it will receive any notice from that body, further than a mere reference to a committee.

In the meantime the Radicals in Congress are at a dead lock on their Territorial and Military Government bills, and it is probable that any thing definite will be done until the meeting of the next Congress, fixed for the 5th of March, when everything will again have to be in at the beginning.

Special attention is invited to the card of Dr. C. C. Porter, Surgeon Dentist. He will, in future, be found for the first week in each month, at his former room on the north west corner of the public square.

Dr. Porter has been long and favorably known as a successful practice Dentist in this section of country. For scientific skill and long experience, he has few if any superiors in the South. His numerous friends and patrons will be glad of an opportunity to avail themselves of his valuable services.

tance, and we must try, in addition, to raise sufficient breadstuffs to support our people without being compelled to make purchases of food from the North and Northwest.

The tendency of slavery to give excessive importance to the country districts; the tendency of the present condition of affairs will be to build up villages and towns, and attract wealth and trade to the commercial centres. We must rely on ourselves; help ourselves;—and pay our own money in profit to ourselves, if we desire the prosperity of this State and of the South.—Charleston Mercury.

Legislative Summary.

Both Houses yesterday resumed the resolution to adjourn on Thursday, and fixed the day of adjournment for Monday. The Senate was principally occupied in acting on House bills, a large number of which were passed or referred.

In the House the greater part of the morning session was taken up in receiving reports from Committees. The principal bills passed were the following:

To require Sheriffs selling land to make a deed—to provide the proper proof, when revenue stamps have once been placed on legal documents—to authorize attorneys to administer oaths—to require Constables to give to Justices of the Peace monthly reports of the number of vagrants in their beats.

Adopted, 13th

Legislative Summary.

In the Senate, Mr. Gage introduced a bill to provide for investigating the origin of fires in cities and towns, which was referred. Mr. Garrett introduced a bill which was passed, fixing the pay of witnesses at $2 per day, and mileage at 5 cents. The House bill to endorse the bonds of the Selma and Meridian Railroad was lost. The House bill to provide indigent untrained soldiers with artificial limbs was ordered to a third reading to-day.

House bill allowing parties where property is levied on, to try the right of property, by giving bond in double the amount of property levied on, instead of double the amount of execution, was passed. Also the bill to authorize the Governor to appoint a suitable person to sit as a Supreme Judge in certain cases was passed.

At the afternoon session the message of Governor Patton, and the proposed new plan of adjustment, were referred to the Committee on Federal Relations. The Senate received from its amendments to the House revenue bill.

In the House the amendments of the Senate to the revenue bill were not agreed to. The Senate rejected. The bill to provide a school for the blind was passed.

A substitute was also adopted for the bill to distribute the school fund. The substitute provides for the return to the Treasury of all surplus and undistributed funds in the hands of trustees. The bill for establishing an Agricultural College in Alabama was passed. A substitute was adopted for the bill dividing the State into Senatorial Districts.

At the afternoon session the new plan from Washington was referred to the Committee on Federal Relations.

The House passed bills to extend the expenses of the State Government; and to exempt the Wills Valley Road from the provisions of the Internal Improvement bill, requiring the President and majority of the Directors of Railroads to reside in this State.

Non-judicially Adopted, 16th

LEGISLATIVE SUMMARY—MORNING Session.—The House bill to establish a system of public works in this State passed the Senate. The main features of it have heretofore appeared. The Senate refused to concur in the House amendment to the bill fixing the pay and mileage of members. The House bill, dividing the State into two judicial circuits, and fixing the time for holding court therein—to provide for Sunday markets; to authorize the substitution of lost records; and to provide the mode of giving constructive notice of motion to enter satisfaction of Judgments were passed. A report from Joint Committee, to examine the office of Comptroller and Treasurer was read. A similar report was made to the House. The report is generally satisfactory. It recommends the abolition of the office of Keeper of the Capitol. It shows that the amount of money in the Treasury on the 15th, was $107,261.55; and on deposit in Mobile, $41,449.88.

In the House the Senate's motion to adjourn to-day was concurred in. The Committee on Federal Relations made a report adverse to any action by the Legislature on the new proposed plan of adjustment. The motion of Mr. Brooks to suspend the rule, in order to introduce a bill for the calling of a convention was lost. The bill known as Mr. McAlexander's, in relation to immigration, was amended and passed. The salary of the Supreme Court reporter was fixed at $2,000 per annum. The Senate bill to incorporate the Memphis and Elyton Railroad was amended and ordered to a third reading to-day. The amendments of the Senate to the Homestead bill were not concurred in.

THE LEGISLATURE.—By resolution of both Houses, this body will adjourn to-day, and will probably not meet again, unless extraordinary circumstances require an extra session.—It is not going beyond bounds to say that no Legislature has ever labored more diligently for the good of the State, or done fewer things that will have to be regretted. Certainly no set of legislators have been cramped by such peculiar financial and Federal embarrassments, and the calm, dignified manner in which they have met the responsibility of their position reflects no less honor upon the State than upon themselves.

They deserve and will receive, at the hands of the people, the plaudits of well done, then good and faithful servants. We wish for the members, one and all, a long career of usefulness and prosperity.—Advertiser, 19th.

"Tears, Idle Tears"

The staunch and conservative Nation and Intelligencer wastes more eloquence upon Congress than any three journals in the North. Its pathos is genuine, its argument unimpeachable, its denunciation just—but its pathos, argument, and denunciation are uttered in vain. In its latest issue the following paragraph occurs:

"Does not every wise man see that the Republic is sorely threatened? Our Congressional leaders say that they are acting in perfect accordance with the Constitution. But in all controversies about the meaning of that instrument there is but one authoritative tribunal. This Congress is now proposing to disregard. The Supreme Court has solemnly pronounced against military tribunals for civilians. In defiance of this, Congress proposes to govern one-half of this country by military commissions. In the name of constitutional liberty; in the name of the martyred dead who have fallen fighting in the great strife for the Constitution and the Union; in the name of the great interests with which this Republic is entrusted; in the name of the oppressed of all lands, who look to this as at once their model and their inspiration, we protest against this proposed violation of our organic law."

That is splendid, but it is not action; it is gorgeous but it goes into the wind. The country will never be saved by sentimental importations to Congress. The "martyred dead" are not worth a pinch of snuff to the proslavery living, except for political capital or banishment to a remote spot.

Let them rip, Mr. Intelligencer; you may as well sing psalms to a dead mule as preach virtue to a rotten Congress.—At Int.

Tariff Tinkering.

We have had now ten tariff bills in five years, besides the one passed last night in the Senate. Here is the list:

1. The act of March 1, 1861, which nearly doubled the taxes on foreign goods imposed by the act of May 8, 1857.

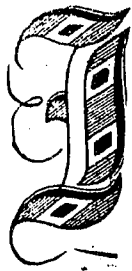

2. The act of August 5, 1860, which increased the duties levied by the previous act.

3. The act of December 24, 1862, providing for higher duties.

4. The act of July 14, 1862, providing for still higher duties.

5. The act of March 3, 1863, which imposed still higher duties.

6. The act of June 30, 1864, which imposed much higher duties on nearly everything.
